Full Day Tour At Sonargoan

Tour Itinerary

- Pick-up and start the tour:

Due to the heavy traffic on the road on a working day, we will start our journey pretty early. At the weekend we generally start at 9 am in the morning. A guide and driver will meet you at your hotel lobby/residence, pick you up, and start driving immediately toward Sonargaon which is located 50 km away from Dhaka.

- Traditional Jamdani sari weaving village:

On the way to Sonargaon just after passing Demra a short visit at Nowapar Village, where the Magic fingers are weaving Traditional Jamdani sari at jamdani Sari.

- Visiting one of the medieval monuments, Goadi Mosque.:

An elegant and good sample of pre-Mughal architecture, the single-domed Goadi Mosque is the most fascinating of the few surviving monuments of the old capital city. It was built in the early 16th century, during the supremacy of Husain Shah located at Goadi which is just half a mile northeast of Panam village in Sonargaon.

- Folk Arts and Crafts Musium visit:

Visit Sadar Bari – a beautiful rajbari (palace) built in 1901 and the Folk Arts and Crafts Museum which is full of folk arts and handicrafts from the 17th century. After a walk for 3 mins onwards the adjacent new museum building of folk arts.

- Historical lost city, Panam Nagar.:

Visit the ruined city Panam Nagar. Constructed between the end of the 18th century and the beginning of the 19th century, this tiny settlement consists of a sole street, lined with a number of 50 mansions built by wealthy Hindu traders, unrestrained during the divider between India and Pakistan when the landowners fled to India. This is a highlight of the Bangladesh Old Capital Tour.

- Rishipara Bamboo School:

Visit a primary school for the disadvantaged students is from mainly Hindu society. With a space situated in nature, the Rishipara Mandir School was considered like an old-style outdoor school in the Bengal region. By using local artisan's craftsmanship, traditional and modern forms of intermediary and indigenous skills have been reflected in this construction. Bamboo has been used to bring back the genuine environmentally-friendly techniques of construction.

- Lunch break, Local authentic food experience. :

Lunch at a local restaurant to experience traditional Bangladeshi food.

- Boat ride and visit a temporary river island:

Visit a char (small river island) in mighty river Meghna by country boat to see traditional life of farmers in Bangladesh, and drive toward Dhaka

- Return to Dhaka:

Drop at the hotel/residence. End of Bangladesh Old Capital tour.

- What to wear ?

As Bangladesh is a majority Muslim country and has a conservative attitude toward dress. In this regard, a modest dress is always welcomed. In the metropolitan cities western dress will not be any problem but in the rural area better to be a bit modestly dressed to receive respect from the locals.

Dress code for women

If you cannot avoid wearing the inappropriate clothes for temple/mosque/church visits like the above , bring a shawl and a big piece of cloth to cover your shoulders and your knees.
